

Water Plant # 1 - Watertown MO.

BULK CHEMICAL UNLOADING PROCEDURE

CHEMICAL: ANHYDROUS AMMONIA

1	Log company, chemical, driver and truck information on the chemical delivery log sheet
2	Inspect the Certificate of Analysis to make sure the product meets specifications

2	Inspect the Certificate of Analysis to make sure the product meets specifications
---	-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------

3	If required, use fork lift to position dock plate and install safety pins
---	---------------------------------------------------------------------------

4	Have the delivery person place the containers on the dock
---	-----------------------------------------------------------

5	Using the ammonia container hand truck move the containers to the storage skids
---	---------------------------------------------------------------------------------

6	Return empty containers to the truck using the same hand truck
---	----------------------------------------------------------------

7	Secure all full and empty containers inside the storage skids with the ratchet straps
---	---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

[illegible][illegible]