

Pre-Conference Wastewater Workshop
2019 MRWA Fall Operations & Maintenance Symposium

Wednesday, October 30, 2019
Lodge of Four Seasons – Lake Ozark, MO

Workshop Agenda

1:30 pm – 2:00 pm	Greetings and Introductions
2:00 pm – 3:00 pm	The Proper Use of an Auto Level/ Keeping Good Field Notes
3:00 pm – 4:00 pm	What’s at “Stake”? : Construction Survey Staking - Definition and Identification
4:00 pm – 5:00 pm	“How-To” - Reading Wastewater Plans

Instructor: Don Mayhew, PLS, PE
Mayhew Surveying and Engineering, Inc.

About the Instructor –

Mr. Mayhew is a licensed Professional Surveyor and Professional Engineer. He has over 39 years of experience in the Engineering and Surveying profession and owns and manages Mayhew Surveying and Engineering, INC. in Waynesville, MO.

From collection systems, both pressure and gravity, to treatment systems ranging from small on-site systems to 2.5 MGD wastewater treatment plants, he has extensive experience in all aspects of water and wastewater projects.

Mr. Mayhew has taught surveying courses at the University of Missouri-Rolla and at State Technical College of Missouri in Linn, MO.

Additionally, Mr. Mayhew has served as the Pulaski County Surveyor for 10 years.